How Time is Billed

- This fee is based on up to 50 hours of work, billable in 20 minute increments. This includes meeting time, phone and text conversations, and other project work.
- FCP understands that within the period of agreement there will be a fair number of interactions between FCP and the client family, including short answers to questions and advice that does not require any research or significant time on FCP's part. Such short interactions are not billed.
- If the time runs under 50 hours, there is no refund for "unused" time, yet if we go over 50 hours, FCP's $200 hourly rate applies.
